

ASSOCIATION OF MULTICULTURAL MEMBERS OF PARTNERS

Dear Colleague:

On behalf of the Association of Multicultural Members of Partners (AMMP), we welcome your interest in becoming a member of AMMP. Our mission is to advance, retain, recruit and develop multicultural professionals into leadership roles at all levels of MGH and the MGPO. Membership in AMMP is open to all employees of the aforementioned institutions.

Keeping in line with our mission, AMMP initiatives focus on four areas:

- Provide high quality personal and professional development programming
- Create opportunities for members to expand their personal and professional networks
- Plan and sponsor cultural celebrations that provide inspiration and education
- Foster and engage a consistent and active membership of multicultural professionals

You will find additional information on the organization as well as a brief membership form attached.

If you are interested in officially becoming an AMMP member, please complete the membership form and return via email to PHSAMMP@partners.org. You can also reach us through this email address with questions.

Thank you for your interest and welcome to AMMP!

Sincerely,

Lisa Leung-Tat
Membership Chair

ASSOCIATION OF MULTICULTURAL MEMBERS OF PARTNERS

MISSION STATEMENT:

The Association of Multicultural Members of Partners is committed to the advancement, recruitment, retention and development of multicultural professionals into leadership roles at all levels and areas of the organization.

AMMP STRUCTURE:

Programming:

AMMP's programming is centered on our monthly general body meetings. During these one hour meetings, we provide information and tools that address our areas of focus: professional and personal development, networking and cultural celebrations. Examples of past programs include:

- Annual Leadership Forum
- Understanding Organizational Culture
- Effective Communication
- Financial Planning Information Session
- Lessons In Goal Setting

In addition to monthly general body meetings, we also sponsor select special events throughout the year such as our annual Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. celebration and our holiday party networking event.

Governance:

AMMP is governed by an Executive Board which is the leadership arm for the Association. The Board designs and implements the programming for the monthly general body meetings and special events. Executive Board elections and appointments take place every two years.
