What's the Word? Tips for Language Development in Toddlers and Preschoolers

Date: Thursday, May 18, 2023

Time: 12–1 pm (Eastern Time)

In the first few years of life, it can be common for children to learn new words every day at an amazing rate. Jennifer Maietta, MS, CCC-SLP, and Emma Hill, MS, CCC-SLP, speech-language pathologists at Mass General for Children (MGfC), will share tips and tricks to help toddlers and preschoolers build language skills and expand their vocabulary. They will also share what to expect for your child's language development as they grow.

- This program is free and open to Mass General patients, families, staff, and the general public.
