

Does your child have an autism spectrum disorder?

The Massachusetts General Hospital for Children at the Lurie Center is currently recruiting for a research study that will evaluate the safety and effectiveness of a study drug for improving irritability in children and adolescents with an autism spectrum disorder.

Participants must be:

- Between 5 - 17 years old
- Diagnosed with an autism spectrum disorder and have irritability

For more information, please contact the Lurie Center research team at:

781-860-1711

or

LurieCenterResearch@Partners.org