Autism Research
Subjects Needed

The Massachusetts General Hospital for Children at the Lurie Center is currently recruiting for a new research study that will explore alternative ways to measure language, social, fine motor and cognitive skills in children with autism.

Participants must be:

• diagnosed with autism
• between the ages of 6-12 years old
• verbally fluent

For more information, call the research staff at:
781-860-1711
Or LurieCenterResearch@partners.org