

Colorectal Cancer Screening and Prevention: What You Need to Know

Date: Thursday, April 18, 2024

Time: 12–1 pm (Eastern Time)

Join Dr. Adjoa Anyane-Yeboah to learn about colorectal cancer – its epidemiology, risk factors, symptoms, and prevention. She will also discuss the differences and disparities in colorectal cancer amongst different populations of individuals.

Featured Speaker: Adjoa Anyane-Yeboah, MD, MPH

Dr. Anyane-Yeboah is an Assistant Professor of Medicine at Harvard Medical School and a gastroenterologist and clinical investigator at Mass General Hospital in Boston. She is a clinician and a researcher focused on increasing colorectal cancer screening in marginalized populations. She is an active member of the American Gastroenterological Association and the American College of Gastroenterology. She received a Service Award for Colorectal Cancer Outreach, Prevention & Year-Round Excellence in 2021 for her work promoting colorectal cancer screening in Black communities in Boston.

- This program is free and open to Mass General patients, families, staff, and the general public.
- To attend this program, click on this link: <https://partners.zoom.us/j/81200543808>
- Please submit questions you may have about the topic before the program to: PFLC@partners.org so that the speaker may address them during the session.

For more information, call 617-724-7352 or email PFLC@partners.org

Blum Center Program Schedule

Scan this QR code with your phone's camera to see our program schedule online

