

THE MAXWELL & ELEANOR BLUM PATIENT AND FAMILY LEARNING CENTER

Cancer Center Series

Palliative Care:

Living Well in the Face of Serious Illness

Palliative care is a medical specialty that helps patients and their families live as well as possible when faced with a life-threatening illness such as cancer. Join Dr. Vicki Jackson as she provides a general overview of palliative care, the services offered at Mass General Cancer Center, and how they can benefit patients and families when cancer has touched their lives.

This online program is free and open to Mass General staff, patients, and the general public.

To attend this program, click on this link:
<https://partners.zoom.us/j/81360194330>

Please submit questions you may have about the topic before the program to: PFLC@partners.org so that the speaker may address them during the session.

Featured Speaker: Vicki Jackson, MD, MPH

Dr. Jackson is the Chief of the Division of Palliative Care and Geriatric Medicine at Massachusetts General Hospital and Professor in the Department of Medicine, Harvard Medical School. She also serves as the Co-Director of the Harvard Medical School Center for Palliative Care. Dr. Jackson is a lead investigator and mentor on numerous studies investigating the effect of early, integrated palliative care for patients with advanced cancer. She is the co-author of the book Living with Cancer: A step by step guide to coping medically and emotionally with a serious diagnosis.

Date: Thursday, July 21, 2022

Time: 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM

For more information, call 617-724-7352 or
email PFLC@partners.org