

THE MAXWELL & ELEANOR BLUM PATIENT AND FAMILY LEARNING CENTER

Online Blum Center Program: What Matters Most During COVID-19

Join us for a two-part discussion. Dr. Matthew Russell will begin by sharing latest updates and getting medical care needed during the COVID-19 pandemic. Dr. Erica Wilson will next discuss what matters most during a hospitalization.

This online program is free and open to MGH staff, patients, and the general public.

To attend this program, click on this link:

<https://partners.zoom.us/j/95838651577>

Featured Speaker: Matthew Russell, MD, MSc
Ambulatory Geriatrics and Senior Health

Dr. Russell is the Director of Ambulatory Geriatrics and the Medical Director for Senior Health. Over the course of his career, he has practiced across the spectrum of Geriatric and Hospice Palliative healthcare delivery. As a faculty member of the Academy for Communication in Healthcare (ACH), he is a local and national resource for teaching learners of all levels in the practice of high-stakes communication in the clinical setting.

Featured Speaker: Erica Wilson, MD
Technology and Learning Continuum Project

Dr. Wilson is a single mom of a 17-year-old named Zack. She is a palliative care clinician and the lead for technology and data for the MGH Continuum Project. Her work supports the integration of serious illness care into the electronic health record as well as the use of technology to evaluate and improve the care of patients with serious illness.

Moderator: Susan Edgman-Levitan, PA
The John D. Stoeckle Center for Primary Care Innovation

Susan is the Executive Director of the Stoeckle Center for Primary Care Innovation. She also leads the patient, family and clinician engagement for the MGH Continuum Project and is co-chair of the MGB Patient Experience Leaders Committee.

Date: Thursday, August 20, 2020

Time: 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM

For more information, call 617-724-7352 or
email PFLC@partners.org

