

THE MAXWELL & ELEANOR BLUM PATIENT AND FAMILY LEARNING CENTER

Finding Reputable Health Information Online

The internet is full of never-ending information, websites, and resources – but when it comes to your health, which ones should you trust? Join health educators Maryam Dayib, BS, and Kimberly Mankus, BS, as they provide tips, advice, and insight on finding reputable health information online.

This online program is free and open to MGH staff, patients, and the general public.

To attend this program, click on this link:

<https://partners.zoom.us/j/87146445871>

Featured Speaker: Maryam Dayib, BS

Maryam is a health educator at the Maxwell & Eleanor Blum Patient and Family Learning Center. With a Bachelor of Science in Public Health, Maryam holds extensive experience in health education. She is a dedicated advocate for health and wellness across diverse populations.

Featured Speaker: Kimberly Mankus, BS

Kimberly is a health educator alongside Maryam at the Maxwell & Eleanor Blum Patient and Family Learning Center. She is currently pursuing a Master of Science in Community Health Education and is passionate about promoting wellness at Massachusetts General Hospital.

Date: Thursday, June 17, 2021

Time: 12:00 PM - 1:00 PM

For more information, call 617-724-7352 or email pfic@partners.org