

Are you or your partner a young adult patient at the MGH Cancer Center?

Are you between the ages of 25-39?

You may be eligible for a research study

- Researchers at the MGH Cancer Center are conducting a study to learn about the experiences of young adults with cancer and their partners
- Participation includes a one-time interview about your experiences
- You will be helping us gather important information that may help other people in the future

To learn more, visit:
massgeneral.org/cancer-center/caregiving-research

Cancer
Outcomes
Research & Education

MASSACHUSETTS
GENERAL HOSPITAL
CANCER CENTER

For more information, contact the study coordinator, Shibani Datta, at sdatta12@mgh.harvard.edu,
or 617-643-8288.