Are you caring for someone with cancer?

Are you feeling stressed?

You may be eligible for the Coping with Caregiving study

- Researchers at the MGH Cancer Center are studying how to best support family and friends caring for people with cancer
- Participation includes 8 free, private, virtual sessions with a counselor

To learn more, visit: massgeneral.org/cancer-center/caregiving-research

For more information, contact the study coordinator, Ali Wheeler, at caregivingresearch@mgh.harvard.edu, or 857-600-0315