

Resources provided October 21, 2021

MGH Geriatric Medicine Town Hall regarding Genetic Testing for Disease Risk

“Genetic Testing for Disease Risk 101”

The Town Hall recording is posted, with prior events, on the MGH Geriatrics website:

<https://www.massgeneral.org/medicine/pcgm/geriatrics/town-hall-videos>

Resources from Leland Hull, MD, MPH and Renée Pelletier, MS, CGC of MGH’s Preventive Genomics Clinic:

<https://phgkb.cdc.gov/FHH/html/index.html>

<https://www.jax.org/education-and-learning/clinical-and-continuing-education/cancer-resources/patient-and-family-resources>

<https://www.cancer.gov/about-cancer/causes-prevention/genetics/genetic-testing-fact-sheet>

<https://www.genome.gov/About-Genomics/Introduction-to-Genomics>

<https://www.massgeneral.org/genetics-and-genomics>

Resources from Sindhura Pulluru, NP and Haley Shinker Redstone, NP of MGH Geriatric Medicine:

Flu vaccination update:

<https://www.massgeneral.org/news/flu/prevent>

Pfizer vaccine booster update:

<https://covidvaccine.massgeneralbrigham.org/>

<https://www.vaccines.gov/>

<https://www.mass.gov/>

DPH In-home Covid vaccination program intake line: 833-983-0485

To reach the on-call provider after hours, call the Geriatrics main line 617-726-4600, and ask to page the provider.