Recognizing the signs of a stroke

Sudden onset of any of these symptoms could mean a stroke:

- Balance: loss of balance or dizziness
- Eyes: loss of vision or double vision
- Face: facial drooping or uneven smile
- Arm: weakness or numbness in one arm or leg
- Speech: slurred speech, difficulty speaking, or confusion
- Time: for any of these symptoms, call 911 immediately