

Cancer can take a dramatic physical toll on patients' bodies, but the mental and emotional demands of serious illness can be just as difficult. Our support programs can help patients and their families cope with the challenges of a cancer diagnosis.

Maxwell V. Blum Cancer Resource Center | 617-724-1822

The Maxwell V. Blum Cancer Resource Center is a program that offers a range of support resources around the Cancer Center. The center has an ongoing mission to make support services, as well as respite and community-building areas, more accessible to patients and families throughout the Cancer Center.

The Katherine A. Gallagher

Integrative Therapies Program | 617-724-6737

The Katherine A. Gallagher Integrative Therapies Program offers free wellness services, such as acupuncture and yoga, for patients with cancer and their loved ones. The programs can help you feel better throughout your cancer experience. Through a wide range of services, you can learn tips for coping with symptoms and stress. These services are designed to enhance quality of life and help manage a broad range of physical and emotional symptoms. Cancer patients and their families use these methods as tools in which they may maintain health and wellness throughout and beyond treatment.

The Marjorie E. Korff Parenting

At a Challenging Time (PACT) Program | 617-724-7272

This program provides individual support for cancer patients who have children in their lives. Working hand-in-hand with parents, PACT's child psychiatrists and child psychologists offer age-specific guidance for helping children cope with a parent's cancer.

Palliative Care Program (Outpatient Services) | 617-724-4000

Our palliative care specialists focus on improving the quality of life of people facing serious illness. From the time of diagnosis, we provide expert management of pain and other symptoms; guidance with difficult treatment choices; and emotional and spiritual support for you and your family. Talk with your doctor or nurse for a referral.
