Huntington’s Disease Resources

The Huntington’s Disease Unit at the Mass General Movement Disorders Unit is dedicated to ensuring that people understand their health care choices and have the necessary information to make decisions affecting their health and well being.

Regular follow-up with your doctor is helpful in reducing symptoms, optimizing the quality of life, and staying abreast with advances in research.

Links to HD-related Sites at Mass General

MassGeneral Institute for Neurodegenerative Disease (MIND)  www.mghmind.org

Links to HD Clinical or Research Affiliates

Huntington Study Group:  http://www.huntington-study-group.org/

Tewksbury Hospital Huntington’s Disease Program: Read about this program on the Massachusetts Health and Human Services Web site.

Non-MGH Links

Hereditary Disease Foundation:  http://www.hdfoundation.org/

Huntington's Disease Advocacy Center:  http://www.hdac.org/

National Institutes of Health (NIH):

Stanford HOPES:  http://www.stanford.edu/group/hopes/

The HD Lighthouse; Information and Community:  http://www.hdlighthouse.org/

The Huntington Study Group:  www.Huntington-Study-Group.org

The Huntington’s Disease Society of America, Inc. (HDSA):  www.hdsa.org

The Huntington’s Disease Society of America, New England Regional Office:  http://www.hdsa-ne.org/

As of 12/22/09